

Able to Stand

Ephesians 6:11

What is it?

The Montana Youth Conference is a group of Seventh-day Adventist young people who are seeking to provide training, encouragement, and networking for young people in the Northwest. Our aim is to facilitate spiritual growth, revival, and reformation for our peers by providing Bible-based and youth-oriented seminars, conferences, and evangelistic opportunities.

Where is it?

Missoula, Montana

When is it?

July 27-31, 2011

Who should come?

Everyone is encouraged to attend, especially young people ages 17 - 35 who want to be part of making a difference in our world at this unique time in earth's history.

MONTANA YOUTH CONFERENCE

MONTANA YOUTH CONFERENCE 2011

The Theme:

The 2011 Montana Youth Conference theme is “Able to Stand”, based on Ephesians 6:11, which says “Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.”

Everyone is engaged in an unseen battle, and you are strengthening one side or the other. Whose cause are you advancing? Are you entangled in the strategies of Satan, or are you Able to Stand against his wiles?

The Speakers:

Chad & Fadia Kreuzer

Nathan Shires

The Kyle Family

“Put on the whole armour of God,
that ye may be Able to Stand against the wiles of the devil.”

–Ephesians 6:11